From the Chaplain's Desk

"But He holds His priesthood permanently because He continues forever. Therefore, He is able to save completely those who approach God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them." - Hebrews 7:24-25

It is the start of a New Year, one which we hope and pray it will be better than the last two! People are usually a bit more reflective during beginnings and endings (and then I tend to get a little lost in the middle). So the end of one year and the beginning of another feels like a good time to remind ourselves of the ultimate reality: Jesus Christ reigns.

It's easy to say, but often oh so hard to believe! But we are assured in Scripture that Jesus is, at this very moment, in Heaven, "working all things together for the good of those who love Him and are called according to His purpose." (Romans 8:28.) One of the most truly encouraging things I've found when thinking about Christ's kingly reign is the fact that the Lord Jesus who currently stands at the helm of the universe making intercession for us is the same Lord Jesus we meet in the four Gospels:

The Jesus who left the 99 for the 1. The Lord who said blessed are the meek and the mourners, the peacemakers and the persecuted. The Jesus who reached out the hand of love to sinners and outsiders, tax-collectors, the poor, and prostitutes. Who stretches that hand yet further on the hard wood of the cross that they all might come within the reach of His saving embrace. The Jesus who loved 'little' people, broken people. People like you and me. That Jesus and the Jesus ruling over all things are the same person!

We can trust that Jesus, that kind of a God to always be faithful and loving. We can be assured that no matter how dark the night has been, joy comes in the morning!

Scot Moir, Chaplain
