No words for the Sacrifice

“ If there are words for Him, then I don't have them. See my brain has not yet reached the point where it could form a thought that could adequately describe the greatness of my God. And my lungs have not yet developed the ability to release a breath with enough agility to breathe out the greatness of His Love.

And my voice... See my voice is so inhibited, restrained by human limits that it's hard to even sing the praise up, you see, if there are words for Him, then I don't have them.

My God, His grace is remarkable, indefinable, mercies are innumerable, strength is impenetrable, He is honorable, accountable favorable.

He's unsearchable yet knowable, indefinable yet approachable, indescribable yet personal. He is beyond comprehension, further than imagination, constant through generations, King of every nation, but if there are words for him, then I don't have them.

You see my words are few to try and capture the ONE TRUE GOD. Using my vocabulary will never do. But I use words as an expression, an expression of worship to a Savior who is both worthy and deserving of my praise. So, I use words.

My heart extols the Lord, blesses His name forever. He has won my heart, captured my mind, and has bound them both together.

He has defeated me in my rebellion, conquered me in my sin. He has welcomed me into His presence, completely invited me in. He has made Himself the object of my sight, flooding me with mercies in the morning, frowning me with grace in the night, but if there are words for Him, then I don't have them.

But what I do have is GOOG NEWS! For my God knew that man-made words would never do, for words are just tools that we use to point to the truth. So, He sent his Son Jesus Christ as The Word, living proof, He is the image of the invisible God, the first born of all creation, for by Him all things were created, giving nothingness, formation. And by His word, He sustains in the power of His name. For He is before all things, and above all things He reigns. Holy is His name! So, praise Him for His life! The way He persevered in strife. The humble son of God becoming the perfect sacrifice.

Praise Him for His death! That He willingly stood in our place that He lovingly endured the grace that He battled our enemy, and on the third day rose in victory.

He is everything that was promised.

Praise Him as the risen King. Lift your voice and sing, for one day He will return for us, and we will finally be united with our saviour for eternity! ETERNITY!

So, it is not just words that I proclaim, for my words point to the word, and the word has a name, hope has a name, joy has a name, peace has a name, love has a name. and that name is Jesus Christ!”

Praise His name forever!

Monthly Newsletter Devotional – November: “True Freedom Through Christ” Bible Verse: “So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.” John 8:36 (NIV)

As we step into the month of November, we reflect on a season rich with meaning.

October has passed—a month when we took time to give thanks for the many blessings God has poured into our lives. Now, in November, our hearts turn toward remembrance. We honor the brave men and women who gave their lives so that we might live in freedom. Their sacrifice reminds us that true freedom always comes at a cost.

Yet, even as we remember their courage, we are reminded of a far greater sacrifice—the one made by Jesus Christ. Through His death and resurrection, we have been set free from the bondage of sin and death. The freedom we enjoy in our nations is precious, but the freedom we receive in Christ is eternal.

As we pause this month to give thanks and to remember, let's also look forward with hope. Let us live as people who have been set free—free to love, to serve, to forgive, and to shine the light of Jesus in a world that desperately needs Him.

May this November be a month of gratitude, remembrance, and renewed faith in the One who gave His life so that we could truly live.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, thank You for the freedom I have in You. Help me to remember those who have sacrificed for our earthly freedom, and to never forget the price You paid for my eternal freedom. Teach me to walk in gratitude and to live each day as a reflection of Your love. In the Holy Name of Jesus, I pray. Amen.

“Lest We Forget” (Author unknown)

They stood for freedom, brave and true, Their blood the price for me and you. Yet deeper still, on Calvary's hill, One bled to break death's power and will.

We wear the poppy, bow the head —For soldiers fallen, tears we shed. But higher still our hearts arise, To Christ who conquered — sacrifice.

Lest we forget the fields of pain, Lest we forget why mercy reigns. For every battle, grave, and loss — We still remember His red cross.
