FROM THE CHAPLAIN'S DESK

How do we adequately honor our mothers on Mother's Day? The ones who raised us and looked after us; the ones who picked us up and kissed away our hurts; the ones who watched us grow up and sadly waved as we moved on; the ones who endured much but loved anyway!

Many are privileged to still have their mothers around and can easily drop by for a visit over coffee or tea. A card in the mail, a telephone call, and a word of appreciation, a smile, a hug, a gift of time, and the words I love you, are just some ways we can honor the one who did so much for us.

While the initial commandment of Honor thy Father and Thy Mother was likely directed towards the young, the need to honor our parents continues on as they age, as well as after they are gone. Many don't have their mothers with them anymore, but they can still cherish the memories. Looking through photo albums and reminiscing about the past is just one way to do that. Taking time to visit the cemetery and put flowers on the grave is another way.

Someone asked the question, "I wonder if they celebrate Mother's Day in heaven?" A good question indeed! With the many special events God directed his people to celebrate in the Bible, I wouldn't be surprised if some of those special celebrations would continue on in heaven!
Let's continue to honor the mothers in our lives today!
