VOLUNTEER BBQ

For all of you who have been faithfully serving here at Fernwood, we would like to invite you to a volunteer BBQ at the A. D. Penner Park Picnic Shelter. Thursday, June 25 at 12noon - 2:00pm. Let Lina know by June 1st if you are attending and if you will need transportation.

THANK YOU for all you do.

Rusk Medical will be at Fernwood on Friday, June 5th to do the Covid booster shots immunization. Times will be posted.

REMINDER, please do not put tin foil or anything that contains metal into your microwave.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

“For I am become like a bottle in the smoke...” (Psalm 119:83). What an interesting comparison for David to make! Bottles of the time were often made of goatskin and hung from a pole in the tent. With age, though, the bottles would become wrinkled and sooty, and would crack and start to leak, eventually becoming useless. Why would David use such a comparison? In the verses just prior, he referred to his eyes as failing and his soul as fainting. Perhaps he had looked up at the bottle and thought, “That’s just like me—all worn out from life.”

What do we do about those times we feel tired and worn out? While we could easily say, “Just keep going!” it’s not always as easy to do.

Our physical health also affects our emotional and spiritual well-being. When we aren’t feeling well, we may also not be able to read or think as clearly as we once did, or we may not be able to pray as we would like to. Being in such circumstances can easily lead to discouragement.

Paul encourages us, “For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day,” (II Corinthians 4:16). In other words, our body may be aging and feeling weaker, but our heart and mind can continue to be strong.

“...for the joy of the Lord is your strength,” (Nehemiah 8:10).

We also celebrate Father’s Day this month—that special time set aside to honor the fathers in our lives. While many can honor their fathers in person, others simply honor their memories.

May we abide in the Father’s love, no matter the situation we find ourselves in!

Peter Berg, Rest Haven Chaplain
