We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Autumn Scenes Wallpapers - Top Free Autumn Scenes Backgrounds ... Fall is officially here. Some trees are already leafless, and the rest are quickly losing their leaves. As they gently detach from the stems of the branch, these leaves float quietly to the ground and create a beautiful carpet of colorful leaves on our lawns, gardens and driveways. That is nature in its beauty. Soon enough, those of us that have yards will be busy cleaning up this layer of leaves in preparation for winter!

"As the seasons change and nature undergoes its annual transformation, the fall season brings a vivid display of colors, a gentle reminder of life's cycles. In the Bible, autumn is often symbolic, carrying spiritual significance and metaphors that resonate with the changing landscapes of our lives" (John Walsh). The selected fall Bible verses and commentaries below explore themes of harvest, gratitude, change, and God's faithfulness during this season of transition.

Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds (Luke 12:24). Jesus encourages His followers to trust in God's provision, using the example of birds that neither sow nor reap. This fall, let us remember God's care for even the smallest details of our lives.

"Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time because the days are evil" (Ephesians 5:15-16). Paul's words encourage believers to be intentional with their time, making wise choices. The fall season prompts reflection on how we use our time and align our lives with God's purposes.

"Be glad, O children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God, for he has given the early rain for your vindication; he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the latter rain, as before" (Joel 2:23). The prophet Joel speaks of God's abundant provision, comparing the early and latter rains. It is a reminder of God's faithfulness throughout the seasons of life.

"Do you not say, 'There are yet four months, then comes the harvest'? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest" (John 4:35). Jesus urges His disciples to recognize the spiritual urgency of sharing the Gospel. The fall season serves as a reminder to be attentive to the ripening spiritual fields around us.

I will need your help setting up our Christmas decor and decorating the trees. I will bring out the trees and the ornaments on the week of November 16th so you could give a hand if possible would be fantastic. - LINA

"November comes, and November goes. With the last red berries and the first white snows. With night coming early and dawn coming late, and ice in the bucket and frost by the gate. The fires burn, and the kettles sing, and earth sinks to rest until next spring."

— Clyde Watson, Frost by the Gate

I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'
